

Sister Cecilia Huber, OSU Publishes Book
Half-Century as Ursuline of Brown County

The Ursulines of Brown County are happy to announce the publication of Sr. Cecilia Huber's book Led by An Invisible Hand. As she tells the reader that when asked to write this book her challenge was to capture "even some of the personalities and events; the priceless stories and situations that make our Brown County Community the beautiful home it is and has been for so many countless students and friends who have been a part of Julia's (Chatfield) dream over the years?"

In his forward, Fr. Jack Wessling, Professor of Philosophy and Chaplain at Ursuline Academy, Cincinnati states: "For well over half a century Sister Cecilia Huber has served the young and the old as an Ursuline of Brown County. In this book she invites us to join in her journey from an eager postulant to these present days of busy "retirement" as she continues to enrich us as a gifted pianist, teacher, and composer of music. You will meet many interesting and remarkable persons who traveled these years with her. Enjoy her sense of humor; be enriched by her insights and wisdom. Join in this journey of the Ursulines of Brown County as seen and beautifully told by my dear friend, Sister Cecilia Huber."
